

St. Petersburg opera season: Pluralism of musical styles and director's ideas .....41

Alexander P. Matusevich (Moscow) – Music Reviewer, Published in the Publications «Kultura», «Novosti Klassicheskoi Muzyki», etc.

matusevic@yandex.ru

The article is an analytical review of opera premieres (both original productions and tour performances) of the 2019–2020 season in musical theaters of St. Petersburg: the example of eight performances clearly shows the widest aesthetic palette, pluralism of musical styles and directorial ideas, which the St. Petersburg audience could get acquainted with during the season.

***

Матусевич А. П. Петербургский оперный сезон: плюрализм музыкальных стилей и режиссерских идей // Ученые записки Российской академии музыки имени Гнесиных. 2020. № 4. С. 41–52

Matusevich A. P. St. Petersburg opera season: Pluralism of musical styles and director's ideas // Scholarly Papers of Russian Gnesins Academy of Music. 2020. № 4. P. 41–52